AudioFreedom Series

Welcome to our Freedom Series ! These teachings and accompanying prayers are for you. They have been produced to target specific problem areas of life. They focus on relationships, and issues surrounding those with whom you have frequent contact. Please feel free to listen to, pray through, and download any or all of them. We invite you to share the materials with others who may receive benefit from them. We also invite you to check out the other materials we have available on our website. If you find you have benefited from any of it and would like to share in our efforts to see many others set free, we gladly accept donations.
