

About Us

Greetings in the Name of Jesus! We appreciate this opportunity to introduce our ministry and ourselves to you.

Since 1992, we have been in the process of developing a ministry model for healing and soul restoration. We began by studying the available literature concerning deliverance. Later, we studied the works of both secular and Christian counselors. We have also studied the ministry model known as "Theophostics," as well as other similar models. In the past few years, we have developed a process we describe as soul restoration based upon the Scripture, which states, "He restores my soul."

In our model for ministry we integrated those things we believe are the best of many different models. We have endeavored to offer a broad-spectrum model for ministry that meets the needs of people from varied backgrounds. We have also worked earnestly to simplify both the psychological and the spiritual concepts so everyone can easily understand. We employ the Scriptural concept which promises that people shall be made free as they know the truth.

We believe this model is beneficial to the whole person. Many people have been delivered and restored to greater health in their souls. We have heard testimonies that physical healings have followed when souls receive healing. We derive great satisfaction from seeing and hearing these testimonies. Many pastors have told us they see members of their flock functioning and participating as never before.

Since 1995 we have been conducting seminars, followed by personal ministry sessions with individuals who attend the seminar. The seminar usually takes about six to eight hours. What we are presenting is not a theory. We have been developing our materials based upon many hundreds of individual ministry sessions, worldwide. In our teaching, we utilize many real life examples demonstrating how the issues presented relate to normal Christians in their own lives.

We are convinced that emotional and spiritual healing is of equal or greater importance than physical healing. In Isaiah 58, God proclaims that the fast He has chosen includes this dimension of salvation. In Jeremiah, chapter 6, God proclaimed, "They have also healed the hurt of My people slightly, saying, 'Peace, Peace!' when there is no peace."

At this time, our greatest frustration is our personal limitations compared to the magnitude of need we see everywhere we travel, both domestically and abroad. We are currently working to establish ministry and training centers worldwide. As these projects prosper, we know many more members of the body of Christ will experience a greater measure of healing. We also offer the seminar, in book form, which can touch the lives of many people with whom we will never have direct contact.
